And Lifetime Money Back
Pet Containment
Guarantee

Lifetime money back pet containment guarantee” is subject to the following conditions: Pet Stop (Company) needs to exhaust all available methods of training and the customer must adhere to follow-up training requirements prescribed by the Company. Customer will communicate to Company any containment problems and allow the Company the opportunity to rectify the problem. The customer agrees to change the battery when necessary and use only Pet Stop certified batteries. After all methods of training have failed to successfully contain the pet, a refund, in the amount of the equipment, will be paid to customer. This warranty is limited to the pet that has been trained by a Pet Stop representative and does not extend to any pets that have been trained solely by the customer. In order for the lifetime warranty to apply to additional pets added to the system, customer must purchase an additional Pet Stop receiver and pay for a minimum of two training sessions conducted by authorized Pet Stop personnel.
